

Quality Policy

The Noxel Quality Policy complies with the following principles:

- Boost strong partnerships with Customers and suppliers from design, technical support, procurement, supply to installation, both in the national and international market, in the following Industrial sectors: petrochemical, pharmaceutical, paper and shipyards.
 - Comply with the legal requirements associated with the services performed.
 - Maintain partnerships based on the information exchange on existing projects and future investment plans, in the markets and industrial sectors in our involvement sphere, namely Investment Groups, Project Offices, Factories and Installers.
 - Involve all employees in the Management System, being attentive to its needs.
 - Ensuring information security and personal data protection, safeguarding the rights and duties defined by the legislation in force.
 - Maintain a strong and trusting relationship with all stakeholders.
 - Systematically evaluate the implementation results of its Management System, keeping all activities operating in accordance with all procedures established and continuously improving the System effectiveness.
-